

All locations open with 1.5-metre distancing

On 26 June we will take the fourth step of the reopening plan and everything will reopen. But people must still stay 1.5 metres apart. Where this is not possible, such as in nightclubs and at organised events, you will need a coronavirus entry pass. Events are permitted from 30 June.

All locations open from 26 June

1.5-metre distancing remains the norm

 Restrictions on opening hours lifted for restaurants, cafés, bars, shops, venues for art and culture, recreation and sport, etc.

 Maximum number of visitors depends on location's size.

 At home: no maximum number of visitors.

 Indoors and outdoors: no maximum group size.

 Work at the office for no more than half your hours.

 Wearing a face mask is still mandatory:

- on public transport and other passenger transport
- at stations and airports
- at secondary schools

With coronavirus entry passes

No 1.5-metre distancing

 Full capacity allowed.

 Nightclubs and discos open.

 Events permitted from 30 June.

 You can generate a coronavirus entry pass via the CoronaCheck app or coronacheck.nl if you have:

- a negative test result no more than 40 hours old.
- proof of vaccination; or
- proof of recovery no more than 6 months old
